Ambassador Constantin-Mihail Grigorie

Ambassador Constantin-Mihail Grigorie is a career diplomat. Since joining the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Romania he has been gradually promoted to the diplomatic ranks of Second Secretary, First Secretary, Counsellor, Minister Counsellor and Ambassador, holding various positions in the Departments for Policy Planning, Neighbouring Countries and Western and Central Europe.

Between 1992 and 1993 he was Advisor to the Minister for Foreign Affairs and between 1993 and 1995, Director of the Minister's Office.

Between 1995 and 1999 he was Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Romania to the Italian Republic, to the Republic of Malta, to the Sovereign Military Order of Malta, as well as Permanent Representative of Romania to the World Food Program, Food and Agriculture Organization, International Fund for Agricultural Development.

Between 1999 and 2003 he was Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Romania to the Republic of Bulgaria.

Between 2003 and 2008 he was Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Romania to the Republic of Tűrkiye.

Between 2008 and 2014 he was Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Romania to the Russian Federation.

Since 2016 he served as Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Romania to the Republic of Croatia

Between 2023 and 2026 he was Director of RACVIAC-Centre for Security Cooperation, Organization established in 2000, with the aim to continuously promoting peace and stability in the South East European region and further contributing to raising the countries' institutional capacities in dealing with the contemporary security challenges, increasing their governance capabilities, and supporting them to effectively implement and fulfil their obligations and commitments deriving from EU and Euro-Atlantic security agendas.

Ambassador Constantin-Mihail Grigorie is honorary member of the Marmara Foundation, NGO with special consultative status to the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) and of observer to the Parliamentary Assembly of the Organization of the Black Sea Economic Cooperation.

ALMA MATER:

- Faculty of International Economic Relations of the Bucharest University of Economic Studies;
- University of Leeds (Great Britain);
- Training course in Paris at the Secretariat of UNESCO.

During his career Ambassador Constantin-Mihail Grigorie has been awarded the following decorations:

- Knight of the Order Star of Romania
- Knight of the Order Diplomatic Merit of Romania
- Diploma of Excellence of the Romanian Diplomatic Service
- Patriarchal Cross, awarded by the Patriarch of Romania
- Order of the "Saints Emperors Constantine and Helena" awarded by Patriarch Daniel of Romania
- Knight Grand Cross of the Order of Merit of the Italian Republic
- Grand Officer of the Order of Merit of the Sovereign Military Order of Malta
- Balkan Range Order First Class of the Republic of Bulgaria

Ambassador Constantin-Mihail Grigorie speaks: English, French, Italian and Spanish.

He is married with Mrs. Mihaela Carmen Grigorie.