

Mr. Quentin JALABERT

Quentin Jalabert is Non-Resident Associated Expert at the New Strategy Center. Graduated from Science Po Paris' International Security master, he specialized on Russian and Eastern European studies – with a strong focus on Ukraine and Russia -, and on Middle Eastern studies. His research has focused on mercenaries, the issue of violence regulation in the international system. Some of his previous experiences include an internship as Research Assistant at the Institut français des relations internationales (IFRI) Center for Security Studies, and a semester as Teaching Assistant at Sciences Po Paris.

Currently, Quentin is a consultant in cybersecurity at Wavestone.
