

Andrew Noble is a British diplomat who has served twice in the British Embassy in Romania, as Press Attache (1983-86), and as Ambassador (2018 to October 2023). He has developed a profound respect and affection for this country, and has travelled widely in Romania. He also served as British Ambassador to Algeria, and in other positions in Germany, Greece and Pretoria. Andrew was appointed LVO by HM Queen Elizabeth II for his involvement in the State Visit to South Africa in 1995. Andrew speaks Romanian, German and French fluently and has also learned modern Greek, Afrikaans and some Arabic. Andrew is also a member of the Advisory Board of the Ratiu Forum, a Trustee of Hospice Casa Sperantei and a member of the Advisory Board of ADEPT. He is married with four children and is an active amateur musician.